Acclaimed for her flawless technique and extraordinary lyricism, Grammy Award winner Sharon Isbin is among the preeminent classical guitar players of the modern era. She is a frequent performer with major orchestras and at famous concert halls around the world and performs a versatile musical repertory ranging from Baroque to Spanish, from folk to jazz-fusion, as well as premiering new concerto and chamber works. "...the Monet of the classical guitar."

One of the true stars to rise from the African continent, Senegalese master musician Baaba Maal has been sharing his music with an appreciative world for the last decade. Whether it's Afro-pop funk or delicately woven traditional West African melodies, Maal and his band sing and play with a soaring and sublime artistry. With his extensive international touring, he has honed and enriched a phenomenal stage show that is an explosion of sound, singing and dancing.

Annual Spring Choral Concert with the Volcano Festival Chorus directed by Tom McAlexander.
